Define your problem statement

What problem are you trying to solve? Frame your problem as a How Might We statement. This will be the focus of your brainstorm.

 5 minutes

PROBLEM

The goal is to use Glassdoor job posting data to gain insights into the future of work. This involves finding high-demand job roles, essential skills, industry trends, and competitive salaries. Understanding company culture and benefits aids informed career decisions, and we aim to identify job market gaps to balance supply and demand. This helps individuals and organizations make informed decisions and stay competitive in the evolving job market.

Key rules of brainstorming

To run a smooth and productive session

 Stay in topic.

 Encourage wild ideas.

 Defer judgment.

 Listen to others.

 Go for volume.

 If possible, be visual.

Step-2: Brainstorm, Idea Listing and Grouping

2

Brainstorm

Group ideas

Take turns sharing your ideas while clustering similar or related notes as you go. Once all sticky notes have been grouped, give each cluster a sentence-like label. If a cluster is bigger than six sticky notes, try and see if you and break it up into smaller sub-groups.

🕒 20 minutes

TIP

Ask your facilitator help to sticky notes to make it easier to find, remove, organize, and collapse or important ideas as others within your mind.

Anticipate networking with employees for insights.

Curiosity about company projects, achievements, leadership, and management.

Step-3: Idea Prioritization

4

Prioritize

Your team should all be on the same page about what's important moving forward. Place your ideas on this grid to determine which ideas are important and which are feasible.

⌚ 20 minutes

TIP

TIP
Participants can use their cursors to point at where sticky notes should go on the grid. The facilitator can confirm the spot by using the lower pointer holding the H key on the keyboard.
